ADMISSIONS

Florida

Chanel Rossi is a Florida native who received her bachelor's degree in Health Sciences from Florida International University. Chanel decided to take her talents to law school and pursued her formal legal education by attending New England Law | Boston thereby receiving her Juris Doctorate. During law school, Chanel served as the Vice President of the Business Law Society and Vice President of the Art Law Society. Chanel continued her legal education by receiving a Certificate of Negotiation and Leadership from Harvard Law School. Throughout law school, Chanel worked as the Senior Paralegal at Murphy PC, a firm that specializes in Real Estate and Project Development matters. Additionally, she served as the Director of Constituent Services for Massachusetts Senator Barry Finegold. In addition, Chanel worked for a First Party Property Litigation firm, managing cases from intake through litigation.

When Chanel is not fiercely advocating for her clients, she enjoys spending time with her family, looking for the next adventure, and learning about different cultures.
