

JESSICA MEHAYLO
Associate

Boston Office
617.766.8803
jam@derreverelaw.com

In 2017, Jessica graduated from Suffolk University with a Bachelor's of Science in U.S. History and Government, with a focus on Public Policy, and in 2020 obtained her Degree of Juris Doctorate from Suffolk University Law School. During law school, Jessica served as the Vice President of the Journal of Trial Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Honor Board.

In 2020, Jessica was published by the Suffolk Journal of Trial Appellate Advocacy, in Volume XXV 2019-2020, Issue 1. During her time in school, Jessica also served on numerous associations and committees, including the Women's Law Association, Criminal Law Association, and Fundraising Committee.

Prior to joining the firm, Jessica expanded her skills to include complex civil litigation, insurance defense, tax and estate management, products liability, business transactions, immigration law, and premises liability. As such, Jessica has experience litigating cases of all sizes involving various issues and areas of practice. Since joining the firm in 2021, Jessica has become a valued addition to the firm's expanding subrogation team in New England.

EDUCATION

Suffolk University School of Law
(Juris Doctorate)

Suffolk University
(Bachelor of Arts in History and Government)

ADMISSIONS

Massachusetts

PRACTICE AREAS

- Insurance Subrogation

ASSOCIATIONS & HONORS

- Member of the Women's Law Association and Criminal Law Association
- Published in the Suffolk Journal of Trial Appellate Advocacy, Volume XXV 2019-2020, Issue 1