Lauren was born and raised in Central Florida and received her bachelor's degree in History from the University of Florida. Though history had always been a passion of hers, law school was always the goal. After completing her undergraduate degree at UF, Lauren continued her education at New England School of Law, where she received her Juris Doctorate.

While in Law School, Lauren interned at the Volunteer Lawyers Project, and was a judicial intern for the Honorable Kelly J. McKibben, a Circuit Judge for the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit in Brevard County, Florida. After law school, Lauren began her career working for a First Party Property Litigation firm, where she managed cases through all stages of litigation. Outside of her career, Lauren enjoys music, traveling, learning about new cultures, reading, playing the piano, and being outdoors.
