Tifanni Cooke is an accomplished attorney with a strong background in litigation. Tifanni has litigated thousands of claims, and successfully tried hundreds of cases. She has an expertise in navigating complex legal matters. Throughout her career, Tifanni has gained extensive experience practicing before arbitrators and judicial officials. She has also excelled in teaching and training fellow attorneys, as evidenced by her organization and instruction at a training seminar aimed at enhancing litigation efficiency. Tifanni has served as in-house counsel for one of the largest insurance companies in the nation.

Tifanni's legal journey began when she earned her Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law. Prior to that, she completed an Honors B.A. in Political Science with a concentration in Global Studies at the University of Delaware within three years. Throughout her education, Tifanni supplemented her legal studies with minors in Spanish and Black American Studies. She is a licensed attorney in New York, New Jersey and the District of Columbia. In addition to her legal expertise, Tifanni possesses valuable language skills as she is proficient in Spanish.

Outside of her legal career, Tifanni takes an active role as the President of the Anne E. C. Blue Scholarship Fund, Inc. This demonstrates her commitment to philanthropy and supporting educational opportunities for deserving students. Tifanni is a highly skilled and resolute attorney with a proven track record in litigation. Her extensive experience, training, and commitment to excellence make her a valuable asset to her clients and the legal profession as a whole.
