Nicole Jennings is an associate attorney at our New York office. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and her J.D. from Marquette University Law School, where she also earned a Certificate in Litigation. During law school, Nicole excelled as the Chief Justice of the Moot Court Program and competed in the New York Bar Association's National Moot Court Competition as well as the Marquette Jenkins Honors Moot Court Competition, arguing before Seventh Circuit Judge Michael B. Brennan. Nicole also gained valuable experience clerking for the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Prior to joining DSBC, she worked for another law firm where she focused her practice on litigation, particularly in subrogation.
