Nedhi Teixeira studied Legal Studies and earned her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Massachusetts Amherst. She continued her education and received her Juris Doctorate from the Massachusetts School of Law in 2020.

Following her admission to the Massachusetts Bar, Nedhi built upon her extensive experience as a litigation assistant by handling complex domestic relations cases as an attorney. She subsequently transitioned to a role as a law and policy consultant, where she provided advocacy across a wide range of legal areas, including housing, immigration, employment, public benefits, family law, and criminal law. Notably, Nedhi has submitted Amicus Briefs to the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, championing tenant rights.
