Kate has represented businesses and insurance companies nationwide, guiding them through challenging claims and litigation. Her practice includes developing liability strategies, overseeing expert witnesses, and if necessary, vigorously pursuing litigation to maximize recovery.

Kate's legal career began in the insurance industry in 2006, where she gained hands-on experience while attending law school at night. Outside of her legal practice, Kate is committed to her community as a coach for Girls on the Run and recently completed both the Chicago and Boston marathons. She is also extremely proud of her son, who serves in the United States Navy.

Kate is admitted to practice in Massachusetts' State and Federal Courts and is an active member of the Worcester County Bar Association.
