Chad Gordon is a Senior Associate in the Subrogation Department. He brings over a decade worth of experience from a full-service Mid-Atlantic law firm representing third party administrators, insurance carriers, and self-insured employers in various industries throughout the United States, which include construction, healthcare, as well as transportation. He provides expert guidance from start to finish on all aspects of litigation and is well known in the industry for securing favorable and cost-proven results for his clients. This expert guidance also includes communicating with clients on a frequent basis to address the multitude of legal and factual issues surrounding the workplace accident and injuries as well as exploring the various litigation strategies to deliver practical and cost-effective results.

Outside of law, Chad enjoys spending time with his family, and coaching his son's basketball team. He is also an avid collector of vinyl records. His record collection spans decades. During the warm weather seasons, you will find Chad out golfing or with his family at the Jersey Shore.
